

lynda.com

@ the Goshen Public Library — call to register 860-491-3234 www.goshenpublib.org

The Long War—The Vietnam War

October 10 at 3 PM — Defeat of a Superpower

Saturday October 8 at 1PM Author Talk

Marty Podskoch, author of Connecticut Civilian Conservation Corps Camps: History, Memories, and Legacy,

The Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) began on March 31, 1933 under President Roosevelt's "New Deal" to relieve the poverty and unemployment of the Depression. The US Army supervised the camps which had from 200-250 men each. The first year 13 camps were set up in Connecticut towns & state parks & forests.

Registration is strongly encouraged.
Light refreshments will be offered.

GPL Cinema / Lunch Schedule at Noon

October 12—Arsenic and Old Lace

November 9 — Mamma Mia!

December 14 — Miracle on 34th Street

Registration is required

Jeff Belanger

At the Old Town Hall—Friday November 18 at 7PM

The Friends of the Goshen Public Library and the Goshen Players host "A Supernatural Evening"

History, belief, and folklore combine to create paranormal legends that challenge what we know about how the universe works. But are these legends more than just stories? What can we learn about ourselves in exploring the unexplained? Meet Jeff Belanger, the ultimate paranormal insider, and the Emmy-nominated host, writer, and producer of the New England Legends series on PBS. He is the Haunted Historian.

Fashion Between the Wars With Susan J. Jerome

Saturday, October 22 at 10AM

Coffee and light refreshments will be provided.

The years between "The War to End All Wars," and the one that followed, witnessed significant changes in the fashions of both men and women. This PowerPoint presentation will examine some of the transformations that took place in society, science, and culture that affected the fashionably dressed during the middle years of the twentieth century.

One on One—Medicare sessions with a WCAAA Associate ... Tuesday October 25th from 5—8PM

And on Tuesday November 1 from 5—8 PM — call to register

Author Panel—Stealing from the Dead

Edith Maxwell, Peggy Gaffney, and Jane Haertel

Saturday October 29, 2016 at 1PM

Come learn about writing mysteries and how people come up with ideas!